

CARL EHRHARD

Rudesheimer Riesling Kabinett Feinherb

Carl Ehrhard grows magnificent Riesling and Pinot Noir grapes on the hillside vineyards of his estate, near the famous town of Rudesheim along the Rhein River in Germany.

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Riesling

VINIFICATION

Selected hand-picked grapes from the vineyard sites of Bischofsberg and Berg Roseneck. Slow fermentation at approximately 64°. Fermentation for four weeks. Only one gentle filtration prior to bottling, and early bottling to preserve the natural fruity aromas.

FLAVOR PROFILE

International dry and refreshing Riesling style. Fruity, with a fine, velvety, mellow texture. The maturity of the grape is discernible with every sip. A Rheingau Riesling of exquisite maturity and elegance!

SERVING SUGGESTIONS

Perfect with seafood, Mediterranean dishes and Asian food.
