

OCONE

Piediroso

REGION

DOC Taburno - on the hillside vineyards of Campania, Italy, with south-west exposure. 750 feet above sea level

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Piediroso

FLAVOR PROFILE

A distinct notable deep ruby red color with a fresh yet intense fruit aroma, predominantly cherry. Full and silky in the mouth with a soft and balanced structure. The flavor is black cherry, strawberry, leather and tar with a mineral finish.

86^{points}
WINEENTHUSIAST
2009
BEST BUY
July 2011

OCONE

Piediroso

REGION

DOC Taburno - on the hillside vineyards of Campania, Italy, with south-west exposure. 750 feet above sea level

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Piediroso

FLAVOR PROFILE

A distinct notable deep ruby red color with a fresh yet intense fruit aroma, predominantly cherry. Full and silky in the mouth with a soft and balanced structure. The flavor is black cherry, strawberry, leather and tar with a mineral finish.

86^{points}
WINEENTHUSIAST
2009
BEST BUY
July 2011

OCONE

Piediroso

REGION

DOC Taburno - on the hillside vineyards of Campania, Italy, with south-west exposure. 750 feet above sea level

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Piediroso

FLAVOR PROFILE

A distinct notable deep ruby red color with a fresh yet intense fruit aroma, predominantly cherry. Full and silky in the mouth with a soft and balanced structure. The flavor is black cherry, strawberry, leather and tar with a mineral finish.

86^{points}
WINEENTHUSIAST
2009
BEST BUY
July 2011

5/17/11

OCONE

Piediroso

REGION

DOC Taburno - on the hillside vineyards of Campania, Italy, with south-west exposure. 750 feet above sea level

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Piediroso

FLAVOR PROFILE

A distinct notable deep ruby red color with a fresh yet intense fruit aroma, predominantly cherry. Full and silky in the mouth with a soft and balanced structure. The flavor is black cherry, strawberry, leather and tar with a mineral finish.

86^{points}
WINEENTHUSIAST
2009
BEST BUY
July 2011

OCONE

Piediroso

REGION

DOC Taburno - on the hillside vineyards of Campania, Italy, with south-west exposure. 750 feet above sea level

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Piediroso

FLAVOR PROFILE

A distinct notable deep ruby red color with a fresh yet intense fruit aroma, predominantly cherry. Full and silky in the mouth with a soft and balanced structure. The flavor is black cherry, strawberry, leather and tar with a mineral finish.

86^{points}
WINEENTHUSIAST
2009
BEST BUY
July 2011

OCONE

Piediroso

REGION

DOC Taburno - on the hillside vineyards of Campania, Italy, with south-west exposure. 750 feet above sea level

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Piediroso

FLAVOR PROFILE

A distinct notable deep ruby red color with a fresh yet intense fruit aroma, predominantly cherry. Full and silky in the mouth with a soft and balanced structure. The flavor is black cherry, strawberry, leather and tar with a mineral finish.

86^{points}
WINEENTHUSIAST
2009
BEST BUY
July 2011